Father's Day at the Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum

Pooler, Ga. – In honor of Father's Day on Sunday, June 20, 2010 the Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum is offering all Fathers a special admission rate of $5.

It is the perfect time to come see the progress of the B-17 Restoration Project. The Museum is restoring its B-17 in honor of the original, "City of Savannah" which was the 5000th plane to have been processed through Hunter Army Airfield during World War II. The "City of Savannah" is on display inside the Museum's Combat Gallery. Come be a part of History in the making!

Activated in 1942 in Savannah, GA the Eighth Air Force was a critical strike element in World War II and remains an active force today. The Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum is one of the world's most powerful Museum experiences as it honors the Mighty Eighth's proud legacy by preserving the stories of courage, character and patriotism displayed by the men and women of the Eighth Air Force from World War II to present.

Just minutes from Historic Savannah the Museum is located at 175 Bourne Avenue in Pooler, right off of I-95 at Exit 102. The Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum is open daily from 9 AM until 5 PM except on New Year's Day, Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas. For more information, please visit www.mightyeighth.org or call 912-748-8888.
