MUSEUM HOLDS FREEDOM SALUTE CEREMONY FOR RETURNING SOLDIERS

Pooler, GA – The Yellow Ribbon Program and the Family Readiness Group are hosting a Freedom Salute Ceremony on Monday, March 30, 2009 at 12:00 p.m. in the Rotunda of the Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum. This Freedom Salute Ceremony will be honoring local soldiers from the 848th Engineer Company which will be returning from a one year deployment to Iraq.

The United States Army will be recognizing 102 soldiers who were deployed for combat on March 31, 2008. This ceremony is open to the public and everyone is encouraged to attend.

Activated in 1942 in Savannah, GA the Eighth Air Force was an important strike element in World War II and remains an active force today. The Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum honors the Mighty Eighth's proud legacy by preserving the stories of courage, character and patriotism displayed by the men and women of the Eighth Air Force from World War II to the present.
