Local Company Makes Additional Contribution to Museum's Restoration Project

Pooler, Ga. –Gulfstream Aerospace Corporation will make another large contribution towards the restoration of the Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum's B-17 "City of Savannah". On Wednesday, September 22, 2010 employees of Gulfstream will paint the interior of the B-17 "City of Savannah" back to its original color. Members of the media are invited to attend this historic event. Members of the media are asked to contact Mandy Livingston in advance for access.

Employees from Gulfstream Aerospace will be donating their time and expertise to paint the interior of the aircraft with Gulfstream's equipment. This is an invaluable donation and service to the Museum's Restoration Project. The Museum's B-17 "City of Savannah" is on display inside the Museum's Combat Gallery while it is undergoing a complete restoration. The aircraft is in Phase 3 of its Restoration where crews are focusing on the interior of the, "City of Savannah".

Activated in 1942 in Savannah, GA the Eighth Air Force was a critical strike element in World War II and remains an active force today. The Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum honors the Mighty Eighth's proud legacy by preserving the stories of courage, character and patriotism displayed by the men and women of the Eighth Air Force from World War II to present.

Just minutes from Historic Savannah the Museum is located at 175 Bourne Avenue in Pooler, right off of I-95 at Exit 102. The Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum is open daily from 9 AM until 5 PM except on New Year's Day, Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas.
