

National Museum of the Mighty Eighth Air Force

Weapons Policy

February 2018

For the safety of our visitors and employees, no weapons of any description or type (guns, knives, etc.) are allowed on National Museum of the Mighty Eighth Air Force (hereinafter Museum) property. Employees with licenses to carry weapons, concealed or otherwise, are not allowed to bring said weapons onto Museum property. No weapons are to be stored on Museum property. Employees are prohibited from carrying weapons while in the course and scope of performing their jobs, whether or not on Museum property. "Museum property" for purposes of this policy includes without limitation all Museum owned buildings, walkways, driveways and parking lots under the Museum's ownership or control.

Legal, chemical dispensing devices such as pepper spray or mace and stun devices that are sold commercially for personal protection are not covered by this policy. Exceptions to this policy are allowed for police officers or other authorized federal or state officers of the law. This policy excludes the Museum's historical collection, and this policy does not apply to Museum employees, Museum Trustees and Museum volunteers who possess a Georgia firearms license who park their privately owned motor vehicles in unrestricted parking, provided that any firearm must be locked out of sight within the trunk, glove box, or other enclosed compartment within the vehicle.
